jucaramarcal SEM CAIS (Without Port) - the new official video off album, DELTA ESTÁCIO BLUES by @jucaramarcal is out now!!

Directed by @alinebelfort and featuring song composers, Negro Léo & Juçara, the video was shot in inner-city São Paulo, capturing the dystopian reality that is the subject matter of the song.

The video is inspired by films such as Blade Runner and Solaris, the works of contemporary dance cinematographer Lisa Nelson (Jump Cut, 1979) and Brazilian cinema of the 1960s.

“Sem Cais is about this polluted world in which we live; not only polluted from an environmental point of view, but polluted from the point of view of information, formation, history, historical consciousness”
